6-2 Rotation Cheat Sheet

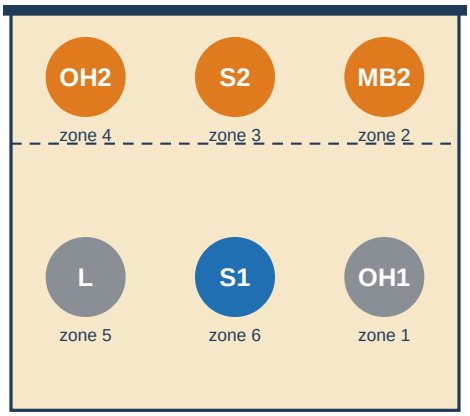

All six rotations at the moment of serve. Two setters, three attackers in every rotation.

Rotation 1 (S1 sets)

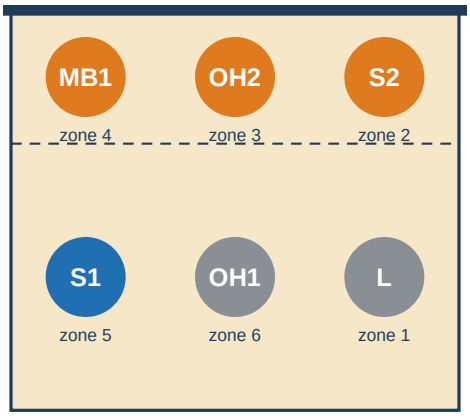

S1 sets from zone 1: shortest release.

Rotation 2 (S1 sets)

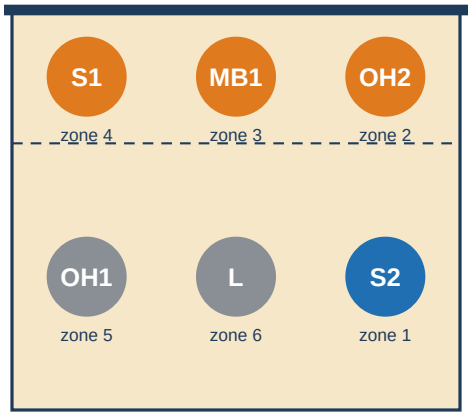

S1 from zone 6: stay behind S2 until serve.

Rotation 3 (S1 sets)

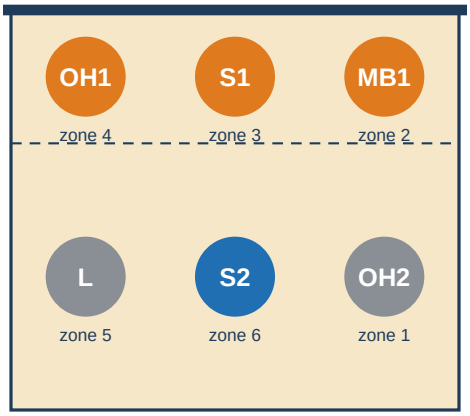

S1 from zone 5: the Long Run. Pass higher.

Rotation 4 (S2 sets)

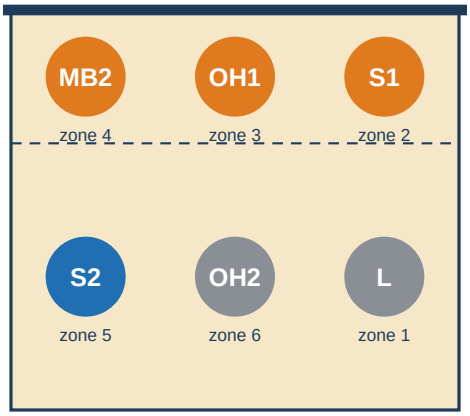

S2 takes over from zone 1.

Rotation 5 (S2 sets)

S2 from zone 6: stay behind S1 until serve.

Rotation 6 (S2 sets)

S2 from zone 5: the Long Run again.

Key

Blue = setting this rotation Orange = front-row attacker Grey = back row. Net is at the top of each court.
S1/S2 setters (opposite each other) OH outside hitters MB middle blockers L libero (replaces the back-row middle).
After serve contact: outsides go left, middles to the middle, the front-row setter (or the opposite) goes right.
Overlap is judged only at the moment of serve, by the feet. Setters: hold, then release.

Subs it costs

No-sub 6-2: 0 per setter switch. One-sub: 1 (2 per full trip). Double-sub: 2 (4 per full trip).
Per-set limits: FIVB 6 | NCAA men 6 (D3 12) | NCAA women D1 15, D2/D3 18 | USAV 15 | NFHS 18.
